Scientific experts predict the Smithtown, Hauppauge, Lake Hills, Ronkonkoma & Nesconset's groundwater problems are not going away. They will get worse before they get better.

In response, Smithtown, Islip and Brookhaven Civics have joined together to provide those suffering groundwater encroachment with the information they need to understand the seriousness of their plight and what they can do to protect their families and property.

The Presentations will include

- ✓ History of flooding by N.E. Branch Alliance Civic Leader Tony Cuzzucoli
- ✓ USGS scientific explanation of the metrological, geological and human developmental factors
- ✓ Home safety and mold presentation by EnviroSpect
- ✓ Vector Control presentation on insect infestations

The agendas are

- ✓ To provide everyone with all the information they need to take whatever action they wish
- ✓ To form a unified political force that will convince local politicians that the time for studies has passed and the time for action is at hand!
